

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, A

Priest Celebrant In faith, call on the Lord, who heals and feeds us -
who gathers together whatever was lost:

Deacon/Cantor/Reader

For the Church's ministries of worship, teaching, and service;
for the ordained, the religious, and the laity who fulfill them,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our country and president, congress, and courts;
for our governor and commonwealth; for public servants,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the healing of racial and ethnic prejudices
and of religious bigotry and intolerance,
let us pray to the Lord:

For immigrants, displaced persons, the homeless;
for famine relief in Africa and wherever hunger lurks,
let us pray to the Lord:

For stability in Israel and Palestine,
throughout Asia, Africa, and wherever war threatens,
let us pray to the Lord:

For the victims and survivors of war;
for the safe return of our armed forces,
let us pray to the Lord:

For our sick
[today in particular ],
let us pray to the Lord:

For all who lost their lives in war this week and Everyone else who has died recently [especially ],
let us pray to the Lord:

Priest Celebrant

May God have pity on us and bless us.
May his face shine upon us.
May the ends of the earth fear him
now and for ever.
